THE President of the New York Soclety for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children has appealed to Mayor Grace to forbid an exhibition by the Boston Miniature | the other. Opera Troupe, comprising 110 small boys and girls, who are paid about $3 a week each.

GOV. FOSTER predicts that the people of Ohio will be compelled to encounter a liquor-dealers' rebellion. He declares that he has never known such bitter feeling on any public question. He estimates the retail profit on beverages in that State at $35, -000,000 per year.

GENERAL GRANT writes the Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, in regard to the Japanese indemnity fund, that the money should never have been collected, and ought now to be refunded, principal and interest, but that Japan does not desire any compromise on part of the interest.

An address issued from headquarters of the National Federation of Labor Unions. Washington, D. C., says "it is of the greatest importance that candidates for the next Congress, of all parties, should be called upon to clearly define their position on the great question of capital and labor before election day."

COMMODORE SHUFELDT has arrived at San Francisco. He takes the credit of planning and executing the opening of Corea. That Government preferred to make its first in securing the concessions, that empire is open to trade with Corea.

treal threatened a riot the other night, the its features. employers not coming to their views in the early closing movement. One merchant was assaulted, and a deputation represented to the Mayor that they feared an attack on their store windows. The Mayor issued a proclamation against rioting, and ordered the entire police force on duty.

THE Ohio brewers have resolved that beer is not only wholesome but healthful, and that its use promotes the cause of true temperance. While they will aid the passage of wise and just laws for the suppression and prevention of inebriation, they protest against enactments that can only result in the destruction of vested interests or in driving capital and labor from the State.

In the British House of Commons on the 28th Gladstone read, amid cheers, an extract from the instructions forwarded to Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador at Constantinople, after the Cabinet meeting of the day previous, saying England was glad of the co-operation of any power, but calling upon the Sultan to state the dates for the dispatch of troops, and before their dispatch to issue a proclamation upholding the Khedive and denouncing Arabi Pasha as a rebel.

A WASHINGTON correspondent has good authority for the statement that among the papers relating to the alleged corruption fund used in procuring the passage of the bill making the land grant to the Texasthat some $1,000,000 of bonds were paid to thirty members of the House, and $500,000 of bonds and $62,000 in money to four members of the Senate; that this transcript gives the names of the four Senators and thirty Representatives and the amount paid each; that three of these four Senators and four only of the Representatives are still in Congress.

News from Egypt is to the effect that Arabi Pasha sent delegates to meet a flag of truce, the other day, who not only declined to talk about surrender on any terms, but were most insulting to the English officers. The condition of affairs at Port Said is critical. De Lesseps is said to be in daily communication with Arabi. The Russian representative at Constantinople has been ordered not to attend any more conferences. to start for Egypt. The French Chamber refused to vote the credit asked by De Freycinet for the protection of the Suez Canal, and the ministers tendered their resignations. A deputation of Egyptians from Kafar-Dwar visited Alexandria to report that the people were determined to resist England to the last. The Khedive and his ministry refused to receive them as delegates. Arabi Pasha writes that he is the only general in command of the Egyptian force, a previsional government having been formed at Cairo with a national assembly of three hundred members. Although many offenders have been flogged, the angry foreign element in Alexandria accuses the English of too much leniency to the Arabs. Lord Beresford makes the acknowledgment that without the aid of the American marines he could not have suppressed the fires at Alexandria, buried the dead, and cleared the streets. An Egyptian who had been convicted of plundering was shot, outside the gates, on the order of a native tribunal. A strong expedition left Alexandria to occupy a point on the railway within two miles or Arabi's camp.

In the House, Mr. Robeson reported back the naval bill, recommending on-concurrence in all but two of the Senate amendments. The President's veto of the river and harbor bill was read.

THE refusal of Italy to co-operate with England in putting down Arabi Pasha may be taken as representing the attitude of Germany and Austria. High authorities at Berlin assert that Russia is about to quit her passive attitude in favor of one directly hostile to British pretensions in Egypt. The London Times says the time is gone by when Turkey could be allowed to take the whole matter into her own hands. If Turkey goes to Egypt, she must not go as an ally but as a subordinate of England.

The Democratic State Convention.

JEFFERSON CITY, July 28. The convention called by the Democratic Central Committee assembled in the House of Representatives at 11 a. m. to-day. The hall was filled with the delega'cs and spectators, the latter being provided with tickets of admission furnished by the Central Committee, so as to prevent confusion. The several congressional districts were apportioned off and designated by placards with the number of the respective district. The members being seated the proceedings were opened with unusual interest. Hon. Shannon C. Douglass, as Chairman of the State Central Committee, called the convention to order, and the body arose and remained standing while Rev. M. Prottsman invoked Divine guidance. Mr. Douglass then delivered an address of some length, reviewing the history of the Democratic party. The temporary officers of the Convention-Chairman, Senator Lloyd, of Newton: Secretaries, Wm. Huff, A. M. Hough and Nat Dryden—then assumed their posi-tions, and without delay the necessary committees were appointed and a recess was

The afternoon session opened at 2:40 and the chair called for the report of the commit-tee on credentials. The committee was not quite prepared, and one or two delegates called for speeches from prominent gentle-men present. Col. J. L. D. Morrison spoke at some length, tackling some disturbing questions with a free hand. The committee on credentials appeared at 3:15 and re-ported that the delegations were full and complete, the proxies present being duly accredited. Received and adopted. The committee on permanent organization and rules and order of business presented a re-port. The following permanent officers were Permanent Chairman - Hon. John F. Phillips, of Jackson County.

Permanent Secretary—Nat. C. Dryden, of Assistant Secretaries—Dr. D. H. Shields, of Marion; W. H. Mayo, of St. Louis; R. D. Wil-lis, of Cole; M. W. Huff, of St. Louis; Lew S.

Talbot, of Randolph.

Sergeants-at-Arms—Ashley W. Ewing, of Cole; Lawrence Harrigan, of St. Louis, and Silas Carr. of Montgomery.

A committee was appointed to escort Col.

Phillips to the chair. He was greeted with applause and returned thanks for the honor conferred upon him, making a few remarks on political topics which were listened to with marked attention. The order of bu-iness called for the nomination of candidates for Supreme Judge. There was an unexplained delay, and for full five minutes the delegates looked at each other, waiting for some one to start the ball. At last, after the Chair had ordered the Secretary to proceed to the next order of business, Mr. Shields, of Jasper, took the floor, and put Jere C. Cravens, of Greene County, in nomination. Mr. Boyd, of Knox, followed on behalf of Judge Redd, of Marion, in which he was seconded by Rufus Anderson, son of Thos. Anderson, of Marion. There was another embarrassing jull, when to the surprise other embarrassing full, when, to the surprise of nearly every one present, Altorney-General McIntyre arose in the midst of the Ray County delegation and proceeded to deliver an address, in which he nominated Judge Sherwood. N. S. Hall, of Rindolph, then nominated Alexander Martin, referring to Can McIntyre originally as the government. Gen. Meintyre evidently as the gentleman from Audrain, Ray and Cole. Mr. Hali's trib-ute to Alexander Martin was an eloquent ef fort, and it was ably seconded by Mr. George Castleman, of the Eighteenth Ward, St. Louis. A ballot was then bad, with the following result: Sherwood, 1865-6; Martin, 1004; Cravens, 795-6: Redd, 5t. A second ballot was taken at once, and when the roll had been called the vote stood: Sherwood, 183; Martin, E3. Boone County led the break, three coning over from Cravens to Sherwood, and was rankly followed by Jayren Macon. Partis rapidly followed by Jasper, Macon, Pettis and Pike. The Northeast votes began to change from Redd to Martin. Cravens' went to Sherwood. After some confusion the secretaries counted the vote, the result of which was anno meed as: Sherwood, 2245-6; Martin, 174; Cravens, 241-16. The St. Louis delegation voted: Martin 45, Sherwood 3, to the Jackson County voted: Martin, 2. Allowing sufficient time for the enthusiasm of the Sherwood men to abate, nominations for Superintendent of Public Education were proceeded with, after which a motion to take a recess until 8 o'clock was made and carried.

Upon reassembling, balloting was begun and resulted in the nomination of W. E. Cole-The vote for Railroad Commissioner resulted as follows: Gen. James Harding, 245; Downing, 152; McGown, 2; Busket, 7; Burko-holder, 12; Keily, 2; Obakiey, 4. The majority of the Committee on Resolu-tions reported the following platform, which

Resolved that we reaffirm the great principles held by the Democratic party, which are the foundation of a free government, among which are equal rights to all, special privi-leges to none, protection of the weak against the encroachment of the strong, equal taxation, free speech, free press, free schools and a free and incorruptible bal-lot. We demand reform of the civil service and adequate national legislation to prohibit and adequate national legislation to prohibit the assessment of persons holding off e un-der the national administration for political purposes, we condemn the extravagance of the Republican party in expenditures of the people's money which has characterized the legislation and conduct of that party; we are opposed to the present iniquitous protective tariff and demand a reduction of all duties to a basis only necessary to secure public revenue, and denounce the evasive and dilatory policy of the Republican party in preventing the needed reform In accordance with the history and tradi-tions of the Democratic party, we are op-posed to any legislation of mery individual conscience and in favor of the largest per-sonal liberty consist at with the public wel-fare; that the stability in the value of money is a primary requirement of individ-ual and commercial prosperity. This can only be secured by making both gold and silver as the money provided by the Consti-tution and subjecting the issue and regulation of paper money to established princi-ples which prevent fluctuations in the value of currency. We demand protection to all citizens of this country at home or abroad and ask such strict enforcement of the laws in this respect as shall secure the same, and condemn the present national administra-tion for negligence in this important duty. We condemn the centralizing tendencies of the Republican party, whereby corporate power, unjustly granted and fostered by the general Government, is enabled to crystallize into monopolies which are oppressive to la-bor and the general interests of the country. The Convention adjourned sine die.

Miscellaneous Items. A Washington correspondent save the grounds upon which the sub-committee in the Sessinghaus-Frost contested election case were unable to agree are stated by a member to have been as follows: 1. The rejection of the votes of those who had committee were unable to find precedents for counting votes properly and legally rejected by an election board. Under these circumstance, the sub-committee deemed it session of Congress for further examination and investigation.

Examinations and surveys, and for contingencies and for incidental repairs of harbors for which there is no special appropriation..... The till provides that the work of improv ng the Mississippi from its mouth to Des Moines Rapids shall be prosecuted under the Mississippi River Commission, as originally proposed by the House, instead of by the Secretary of War, as subsequently proposed by the Senate. The appropriations for the surveys of the Hennepin and Delaware & Chesapcake Canals were finally fixed at $30,000 for Hennepin and $10,000 for the Delaware & Chesapeake, with a proviso added in each instance that the Government shall not be committed by these appropriations in favor of proceeding to the construction of the canals.

Regularity in Eating.

If there is any one rule about eating in which all persons are agreed, it is, that our meals should be taken atstated and regular periods. People may difbeen stricken from the register list was in fer about vegetarianism, about sweets. accordance with the laws of Missouri, and about pies and cakes, about tea and the judges of election acted properly in re- coffee; but I have never met a person fusing said wees. 2. A majority of the who would insist that regularity was of no consequence—that it was just as well to take two meals to day and five to-morrow, to take dinner at one o'clock to day, three to-morrow, and best to let the case lie over until the next five next day. Without understanding the physiological law, all are agreed that regularity is important. A long journey by rail does not de-range the stomach because of long sitting in an unventilated car, for the traveler may occupy a still worse place in the pursuit of his business at home; neither is it because of the character of the food furnished at the railway lunchrooms: for the food at home is often worse; but the stomach derangement which nearly always comes with the long railway trip is, in great part, to be traced to irregularity in the times of Aug. 29, five days; Marshall, Aug. 29, five eating. In a recent trip, we took days; Tipton, Sept. 5, five days; Columbus, breakfast the first morning just after daylight, next morning at half-past nine o'clock, the next at seven, and so with the other meals; only one day we had no dinner at all. In less than a week we were all suffering indigestion; some were conscious of no discomfort in the stomach, but not one of us escaped the dullness and depression of spirits which come of imperfect digestion. Among the table laws, this one of regularity is pre-eminently important. -Dr. Dio Lewis, in Golden Ruie. Nye's Boomerang.

SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY.

-At the end of the first year Dr. Sozinsky says that on an average a child should be thirty inches high and should weigh twenty-five pounds.

-It seems to be a difficult matter to make the floors of brick or stone bridges water-tight. The best remedy is to lay a coating of asphalt over the arches and to make proper channels to carry the water away .- N. Y. Herald.

-A rail for common roads has been introduced in France. It is imbedded in concrete and is flush at the edges with the roadway. From the sides it slopes down to the center, so as to enable the wheels of vehicles to retain their place upon it. The estimated cost is about $2 a yard. -A new explosive is reported to have been invented by a Viennese engineer. It contains neither sulphuric acid, nitric acid, nor nitro-glycerine. Its manufacture is simple and without danger, and it preserves its qualities in the coldest or hottest weather. It can be made at 40 per cent. less cost than gunpowder. -A Detroit man has, after a labor of two years, perfected a machine to make needles, which will usurp hand labor in that direction, and which promises to revolutionize the manufacture of that much used article. It is estimated that not less than 2,000,000 of needles are used per day throughout the United States alone. A company has been organized in Brooklyn .- N. Y. Times.

-Milk when heated in closed vessels to a temperature of 75 degrees Centigrade remains sweet for ninety-six nours. If the vessel is opened sourness occurs after forty-eight hours. If the milk is heated in the open air it remains sweet only twenty-four hours. A temperature of between 50 and 60 degrees does not alter the taste of milk, and if it be curdled at this temperature the curd is flocculent .- Chicago Tribune.

-Helmuth Dueburg, of Berlin, has come to the conclusion that the side of the moon which is continually turned from the earth possesses air, water and life. His idea is that in the absence of any centrifugal force due to rotation on her own axis, the only contrifugal force acting upon the moon must be that resulting from her own motion round the earth. This would tend to throw the moon's air and water to the side opposite to that which is always toward the earth.

-The electric lamp, designed for producing intermittent luminous signals, is described in foreign journals. A cam motion is used, by which the carbons are separated at each revolution, and can be operated by clock-work for regular signals, or by hand for irregular ones. According to the preferred mode, the rim of the homogeneous car wheel, as it is called, is cast from melted scraps of wrought iron and steel. When "set," it is taken from the mold and placed in another, the center piece cast of best wheel iron, and 15,000 the two metals firmly wedded together.

PITH AND POINT.

-A Tennessee paper announces: "Subscribers sent to jail for the summer season can have their papers mailed regularly by notifying us of the change of address."

-More than half the newspapers in the world are printed in the English language; that is to say, in such English as the writer happens to have on hand .- Louisville Courier Journal.

-They don't have rains out West. A cloud just saunters up and examines a town and then collapses right over it. Nobody escapes but the newspaper reporters and the book agents. -Atlanta Constitution.

-It isn't the value we care for when a neighbor wrings the neck of a chicken and flings the body over the fence. What hurts is the fact that he has no dog which can be poisoned by way of getting even .- Detroit Free Press.

-They sat by the tower of Pisa, And he did what he could to plisa; He looked in her eyes, He heaved many seves

Then stuck out his arms for to squiesa.

-Louisville Courier-Journal. -When you find a newspaper announcing that "Miss Arabella Dash, the plain-looking, commonly-educated and passably-tempered daughter of Col. Dash, is about to wed," etc., you will find an honest journalist-who will get the bounce within twenty-four hours.

"Don't say so," said the press guest. "Have you a salt rheum in the house?" "Yes, sir," said the landlord quickly; "a humorous correspondent has it just now."-Chicago Tribune. -Teacher-"What is a score?" Pupil-"The number of runs made at a cricket-match." Teacher-"No, no; what I mean is, how much does a score signify numerically. What idea does it give you? That is to say, if I were to tell you that I had a score of horses, what would you think?" Papil-"Please, marm, I should think you was

stuffin' me."

A Chinese compositor can not sit at his case as our printers do, but must walk from one case to another constantly, as the characters needed cover such a large number that they can not be put into anything like the space used in the English newspaper office. In setting up an ordinary piece of manu-script the Chinese printer will waltz up and down the room for a few moments and then go down stairs for a line of lower case. Then he takes the elevator and goes up into the third story after some caps, and then out into the woodshed after a handful of astonishers. The successful Chinese compositor doesn't need to be so very intelligent, but he must be a good pedestrian. He may work and walk around over the building all day to set up a stickful, and then half the people in this country couldn't read it after all -
